NEW ALL-BRANDS MOTORCYCLE SHOW DURING DAYTONA'S BIKETOBERFEST

The Daytona Lagoon, one of Daytona Beach's new attractions, will be hosting the first annual Biketober Motorcycle Classic on Friday, October 21, 2005.

Modeled after New York City's popular Gotham Motorcycle Classic (www.gothammc.com), this family oriented, one-day event is open to all makes and models of motorcycles, sidecars and trikes. The Biketober Motorcycle Classic will feature classes for everything from original antique Indians, to 1960s Triumphs, customized Harleys and Yamahas as well as choppers, racers and touring bikes.

We've partnered up with the folks who produce the Gotham Motorcycle Classic and persuaded them to put together a show in sunny Florida. We love bikers and welcome them with open arms. said Tracy Conlin of Daytona Lagoon. The first annual Biketober Motorcycle Classic will be the first of many bike shows here at Daytona Lagoon during Biketoberfest and Bike Week. Come check out the fun in the sun and bring your sunglasses because there's going to be a lot of bright paint and chrome on display here.

Daytona Lagoon is located at 601 Earl Street in downtown Daytona Beach, next to the Ocean Center. It features a water park as well as an amusement center with laser tag, climbing wall, video games, restaurants and a bar.
